

Integration

Pin assembly into injection molded part.

Challenge:

Integrate a system to locate multiple pins into an injection molded product and assemble nuts off-line.

Solution:

We manufactured end of arm tooling and integrated the product into a robotic work cell, as well as integrating the nut to the pin assembly work cell.

Result:

We provided a fully automated work cell that met cycle time requirements.