

Material Handling

Automated rotary pallet index system

Challenge:

Provide a fully automated part loading system to eliminate production down time at an unload station.

Solution:

We developed an automated index turntable that was integrated with the current work cell, and installed a PLC program to monitor part count and rotary sequencing.

Result:

Unload station down time was eliminated.